Forty-eighth Annual Announcement . . .

The
Fort Wayne Woman's Club

Organized March 7, 1925

CLUB HOUSE

402 West Wayne Street

Telephone 422-2002

Mrs. Walter Lorenz - - - - - Executive Secretary

The President's Message

My dear friends,

I accept with humility the honor you have bestowed upon me as the President of the Fort Wayne Woman's Club for these next two years. Following in the footsteps of the founders of this great organization, I know that I do not stand on sand but on a firm foundation, knowing this club was organized as a center for the intellectual, asethetic, and philanthropic development of its members and the civic betterment of the community.

Our Thursday morning lectures are assembled to be diversified, informative, and inspirational. By meeting together and working together, we should become alert to the trends of the day and be able to take intelligent action on the problems at hand.

No organization can boast of a membership of more wonderful women than here at the club.

Sincerely,
NAN GAYLORD

Collect for Club Women

(all standing)

Keep us, O God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed.

Let us be done with fault finding and leave off self-seeking.

May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face without self-pity, and without prejudice.

May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.

Let us take time for all things; and make us grow calm, serene and gentle.

Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straightforward and unafraid.

Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences; that in the big things of life we are at one.

And may we strive to touch and to know the great, common human heart of us all. And, O Lord God, let us forget not to be kind.

—MARY STEWART.

He has traveled more than 600,000 miles in Kentucky alone and has become a recognized authority on the Appalachia region, its people, customs, and folk ways.

In 1967, he shared in the Pulitzer Prize the Courier-Journal won for public service. He also is the recipient of the University of Kentucky Distinguished Service Medallion.

MR. AND MRS. WILSON CRISWELL

Since her retirement from Purdue University Center as Assistant Professor of English, Mrs. Wilson Criswell and her husband have done extensive traveling. Two years ago they cruised around the world on the S. S. President Roosevelt which stopped at twenty-three ports, from which they made land tours. Mr. Criswell, a skillful amateur photographer, took slides which illustrate Mrs. Criswell's narration, "Around the World in 90 Days." Highlight of the entire trip was a view of the Taj Mahal at sunrise.

ROBERT DAVIS

Noted lecturer, cinematographer and film producer, Mr. Davis brings us a gorgeous color production of Arizona from Geology to the Grand Canyon and from Industry to Indians. A production that lifted the movie out of the usual travelogue class.

His lecture bookings take him over 400,000 miles of the United States and Canada each year.

RAYMOND J. FRIED

NORMAN GARBO

"Anyone who can hold a paint brush can learn to paint" contends our speaker. His outlook is that art should be for fun and relaxation. Since 1945 he has devoted himself to portrait painting. He is one of the few artists who painted both Truman and Eisenhower. Being a man of diversified talents, Mr. Garbo has also written a best-seller espionage novel and a great many short stories for leading magazines.

LAWRENCE GICHENER

An internationally recognized authority on art and antiques who states "There may be dull people but there is no such thing as a dull item of collection". Mr. Gichener himself collects rare books, autographs, ivory carvings, and Chinese snuff bottles for his wife. The infectious fun of collecting will be vividly brought home to the members of his audience.

Personal chef to Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy before she became Mrs. Onassis. Petite and vivacious, she has captivated gourmet New York with her creative ideas for elegant entertaining and original recipes. Selections of these will be distributed at the meeting here. ANNUAL REPORT OF BOOK AND TRAVEL DEPARTMENT 1971-1972

The Book and Travel Department opened its club year with a Smorgasbord Luncheon on November 9 with one of our department members, Mrs. W. D. Criswell and her husband, W. D. Criswell, giving a film program on "Way Down Under."

Our Department planned the menu for the club's two Christmas luncheons.

For our Sponsored Day we presented Mr. Max Siegel who spoke on "The Life and Times of a Literary Agent."

Our Luncheon and Annual Meeting was held February 8. Bridge followed the meeting.

Miss Olive Perkins, a member of our department, presented a book review at our March 7 luncheon.

The Department's philanthropic contribution of $25.00 was to Project HEAR, the deaf education program for young deaf children, sponsored jointly by the Fort Wayne Community Schools and the Fort Wayne Junior League.

We welcomed ten new members and two re-instated members during the year.

ANNUAL REPORT OF JUNIOR DEPARTMENT, 1971-1972

The Junior Department opened its Club year on November 2 with a Guest Night and Crazy Bridge party. In November we also sponsored, together with the Civic Department, a Monte Carlo Nite which was a huge success. Five other programs were carried out as scheduled, including our Sponsored Day in February. We closed the Club year with a Husband and Wife Dinner and Wine Tasting Party.

The recipient of our Department's philanthropic contribution of $25.00 was Miss Virginia's Home on Hanna Street.

Ten new members were welcomed into our department.

Reports of Chairman & Officers

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE RECORDING SECRETARY 1971-1972

The Fort Wayne Woman's Club began the 47th year of activities with high spirits in a beautifully redecorated club home under the leadership of an experienced president, Mrs. Robert Bradtmiller.

During the summer, the Furnishings Committee, with Board approval, arranged for redecoration of the dining room, retaining the Williamsburg motif, new lounge draperies and wall redecoration throughout, thereby creating a most attractive and serene atmosphere. In addition, the auditorium walls have been bedecked with exhibits of local artists throughout the club year. Outside club and individual use of these facilities has increased this season.

As is typical because of our fast-moving lives, several members have found it impossible to continue club membership, however, many new members welcomed during the club year have added their talents and efforts to complete a year of record attendance at special events and over-subscribed Thursday luncheons.

Club or department sponsored projects have included an art exhibit and tea, dinner parties, a style show, holiday trip to Chicago, Collage, Yoga and Bowling classes, trip to Marshall Field and World Flower Show, biannual coffee in honor of new members, and a trip to the tulip festival in Holland, Michigan, which will be held after the completion of club programs in May. These have been delightful experiences enjoyed by a large number of members and guests.

At the Annual Convention of Allen County Federation of Clubs, held in our club rooms March 1, 1972, awards were received by our club for Fine Arts Programs, Student Aid and Scholarships, and for Sponsoring the Federation Breakfast in November, 1971.

Each department and the general club supported varied types of local philanthropic projects both materially and financially.

Although no revisions in By-Laws have been considered this past year, every member will profit by being thoroughly acquainted with the Constitution, By-Laws, Standing Rules, House Rules, Budget and Annual Reports printed in the Yearbook.

Praise has been generous from our guest speakers for the warmth and kindness shown by our most capable program chairman, her committee, our gracious president and the entire membership. Sincerity has been evidenced by their frankness in speaking and a willingness to share personal opinions, especially at the post-luncheon commentary. Several have expressed pleasure in being asked to return to us because of previous pleasant experiences.

Resignations from Mrs. Tenny, our Executive Secretary for the past nine years, and her assistant for the past seven years, Mrs. Darby, were read at the April Board of Directors Meeting. Despite our disappointment, we sincerely thank these competent ladies for unequalled performance and dependability upon which we have relied.

The past two years have served to make a much better informed club member of your retiring Recording Secretary. My personal thanks to each of you for the confidence placed in me to serve in this capacity. May each of us contribute our talents in continuing this as one of America's outstanding Woman's Clubs.

Elizabeth T. Dinius,
Recording Secretary

ANNUAL REPORT BOARD OF TRUSTEES, 1971-1972

The Trustees met in two regular meetings as prescribed in the By-Laws.

The yearly rent of One Dollar has been paid to the Chamber of Commerce. The fire extinguishers have been inspected and the insurance for the Club has been paid. Mrs. A. J. Baxter has agreed to bring to date the Recording Secretary's books and Trustee minutes so they can be micro-filmed.

A new hinge was installed on the swinging door at the entrance to the Club and a Frigidaire ice machine was purchased to be installed in the kitchen.

Retiring Board members are Mrs. Forrest Fitch, Miss Mary Price, and Mrs. John Rahrer. New members elected to the Board of Trustees by the Board of Directors are Mrs. Robert Bradtmiller, Mrs. Gilbert Bonner, and Mrs. George Kowalczyk.

New officers of Trustees elected by its Board are Mrs. Robert McDougall, Chairman, and Mrs. A. J. Baxter, Secretary.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. John Rahrer
